James Dickson joined the Indian Bottom Baptist Church (later called Old Regular Baptist) September 1849 and was ordained a minister January 1851.

The ordination is as follows:

OBITUARY

At our last Association it was agreed that the obituary of Bro. James Dixon be printed in our minutes. I supposed that some of the family would write it, but one of them sent me the record of his age and ministerial life, and asked that I write the rest. I will now make the feeble attempt to do so.

Elder James Dixon was born in Perry county, Ky. (now Letcher) December 11, 1824; was married to Susanah Caudill, daughter of William Caudill, 1844. Joined the Regular Baptist Church at Indian Bottom Sept. 1849, ordained Jan. 1850; died Feb. 15, 1914 age 89 years, 2 months and 4 days; member of the church 64 years 5 months, ordained minister 64 years.

When we begin to think of the number of years that he labored as minister we are compelled to think he was sent of God, for all through the long line of his ministerial life he was steadfast in the faith and doctrine in which the Lord placed him, (as we feel sure) never being tossed about by every winds of doctrine.

He was a great counselor in the Baptist ranks; was at one time pastor of the Oven Fork Church, was pastor of several churches of which I am unable to say just now as I have no record, and was at the time of his death pastor of the Indian Bottom Church; was several times moderator of the Indian Bottom Association. His examples of virtue, modesty and Godly conversation will live in the minds of his children, neighbors, brothers and sisters for many years to come. When the children go to the place of his last abode father will not be there, when neighbors and brothers and sisters go to the church house the seat that he has filled for so many years will be vacant but in their minds his presence will be bright.

We were truly grieved to give up Bro. Dixon but it pleased the Lord whom he had served for more than 64 years so faithfully to call him from this world of trouble where he was a sufferer in the flesh nearly all his life, to the sweet paradise of God where he will be enabled to sing praises of Jesus.

May the Lord bless us to live in obedience to him as did our dear brother till it pleases him to take us from this world to that Celestial City where we will meet Bro. Dixon again, where there will be no sad partings and troubles <sup>NEVER</sup> come, is the sincere desire of your unworthy.

FUNERAL

JUNE 1915

The funeral meeting for Elder James Dixon held at his home on Elk Creek Saturday and Sunday was attended by the largest gathering of the kind ever assembled in Letcher county, about 1600 being present to pay all honor and respect due the memory of this worthy Christian gentleman. Elders Watson Combs, Ira Combs, W.R. Boggs and David Maggard preached some touching sermons and paid high tribute to their departed friend's memory. The audiences were extraordinarily well behaved and all listened earnestly and interestedly. The following song composed by Elder Dixon and a favorite hymn of his was sung by the large audience with much emotion. It was indeed a glorious meeting and will be long remembered by all present. The song follows:

Now soon with me will time be o'er,
I soon shall sink to rise no more,
Till Jesus comes the second time,
I hope in him I will arise.
My children seem so near my heart,
But soon from them I must depart,
O Lord, in mercy draw them in,
And save their souls from death and sin.
Now to the church a word or two,
And I will tell you what to do;
Be faithful, meet and serve the Lord,
And you will have a great reward,
My brother preachers, fare you well;
I can't much longer with you dwell;
Don't let this wound your tender heart;
Tis needful and we have to part,
Oh Lord, when I am called to die,
O send thy angels from on high,
To bear my soul on wings of love,
To that good rest in Christ above.

The above taken from the Mountain Eagle paper, June 1915.

IN MEMORY

Of Elder James D. Caudill and my beloved grandfather, Elder James Dixon.
(By John D. Dixon)

Death came at last, as we have seen,
And took two shepherds home;
To home, sweet home, above the skies,
That home I long to see.

Elder James Dixon first was called,
To quit the walks of time:
He left this world of trouble and grief
At the age of eighty-nine.

Elder James Caudill followed soon,
To meet his brother anew,
and wear that bright and shining crown
That waits for me and you.

Their presence at the house of God,
The saints no more shall see;
But when they reach that home on high,
Together they will be.

It seems I view them round the throne,
Playing on their harps of gold,
And praising God, the most supreme,
And father of us all.

I hope the Lord will hear our cries,
And give us sweet relief;
By sending us more shepherds wise,
To feed the wandering sheep.

O, Father, keep us while on earth
Till called to him on high;
As Thou hast said in Thy good book,
As apples of thine eye.

And when our days of toil are past,
And we from earth shall fly,
I hope to meet with Thee, dear Lord,
In heaven above the sky.

There we shall meet our brethern dear,
Who've left us here below,
And see our loving Savior dear,
And live forevermore.

March 8, 1914

The following is an excerpt taken from a photostatic copy of a letter from Elder James Dickson, a member of the Indian Bottom Church, which was found in the Bible of John Cornett, who moved to Arkansas in 1870.

Indian Bottom, Letcher County, Ky.
June 26, 1887

Mr. John Cornett, dear Brother

I will inform you that I am in receipt of your letter of May 24th.

Was truly glad to hear from you and that you were well. Was thankful the God of all Grace that you had visited my Son. Hope you will do so again and that you will if you feel like it converse with him upon the glorious doctrine of the gospel of the Son of God, Salvation by grace through and by the merits of the Blood of Christ as a lamb slain from before the foundation of the world.

You say if it was not asking too much you want me to write on church government or discipline. You have not ask to much, brother John, If I could do it but assuredly I feel unworthy in and of myself to do so but desiring to trust in the rewarding power of God who resurrected Christ from the dead and set him on high to be both a prince and a Savior, him having the pre-eminence over all principalities and powers to be the great invisible head of the church the pillar and ground of the truth.

As a starting point we will notice the scripture which moved up in my mind since I began to write that there should be no schism in the body but that the members should have the same care for another--1 Cor. 12 ch. 25 verse -- here we see the great apostle was portraying upon the mind of the Corinthian church the unity of the church as a body and shows under a metaphor of a natural body made up of members all animated by the flow and warmth of the same blood.

This divine law of the Spirit is practiced by the Regular Baptist of all ages and should be according to the gospel for a discipline that deviates from the orthodox principal of the gospel is human and not the discipline of the Christ which is divine.

The members should have the same love for another bearing anothers burdens fulfilling the law of Christ in obedience and humility. The Church of Christ is a unit and is spoken of by the wise man as a virtuous woman having the law of kindness in her tongue and honors her husband in the gates, holding fast the doctrine of Salvation by grace she does so freely without money or price. They are taught to love one another not in word only but in Spirit and truth. This divine law is practiced by the Regular Baptist of all ages.

We have no right to receive the Baptism of an illegal administrator nor will the law of Zion suffer us to commune with the inscriptural denominations and Modern institutions of Men. The discipline will not suffer us to fellwship a heretic it causes divisions instead of teaching the tender babes of Jesus to have the same care one for another. It will not suffer us to hold in fellowship drunkenness, adultery nor none of those abominations- Amen -- and may the Lord bless you is the prare of your unworthy Brother James Dickson.

JOHN W. DIXON

While my father John W. Dixon has been dead some 36 years, yet I have strong impression to write a short sketch of his devoted christian life. "He being dead speaketh." I never knew how I should appreciate such a father as I had until he was taken away from us and especially since I hope I have obtained the same like precious blessing he did. Oh if time could turn backward where I could have the pleasure of talking to my beloved father again, but I have a hope to meet him before long in a better place than this world. He was born Oct. 23, 1845 and died April 1902. He was married to pheobe Caudill, daughter of the late Isom and Lizzie (Back) Caudill in 1867. To this union was born seven children: five boys and two girls, a boy and a girl having died in infancy. Nancy and James C. both grown and married with families, died some years ago, William C., Isom and Jerry P. are still living.

Mother died in April 1887 at the age of 37 years. Later father was married the second time to Rachel Eldridge. To this union was born four children, Polly Ann, Mary and Rebecca, girls and Pearl B., a son, all living and married.

Father and mother both joined the Indian Bottom Church of Regular Baptist in their young days and were ordained deacon and deaconess of that church. Father was clerk of that church shortly after he joined until death. I never knew a more devoted christian than he was. While he was poor in this world's goods, he was rich in the spiritual love of God. His tattered garments and the need of his work at home was never in his way when the church meeting come. He always filled his seat in the church when possible, "The love of Christ constrained him". He was strong in the faith, he was the oldest child of the late Elder James Dickson.
