Rachel (Eldridge) Dixon:

Rachel was very well educated for her day and area. She was an excellent speller, could spell and define every word in the Old Blue Back Speller. She was also good reader and in simple math. She was a career mid-wife, and delivered more babies than any other doctor or midwife in her span of life. In one family, John Collins on Mill Branch, she delivered 8 babies. Rachel joined the Indian Bottom Church the first Sunday in July 1892, while her husband joined the same church at age 21 in 1867. Soon after Rachel joined the two were made Deacon and Deaconess, which offices they held until John's death in 1902, and hers in 1947.

Pearl Dixon says his mother was very good at doing up small cuts and wounds. On one occasion Pearl and a younger sister were playing with corn cobs, which he was cutting with a hatchet. She suddenly shot her hand out and he cut three fingers, except for the skin attachment on one side. Her mother placed them back in their proper place, put some splints on them. and then bound them with brown paper with vinegar and turpentine. In a short time these healed nicely, but leaving scars for life. Dr. Ison stated that if she had a little training she could have been a skilled physician. She was a good cook and at age 90 and above she could make a meal in just a few minutes of fluffy biscuits, side bacon and gravy, of which the latter item was one of the favorites of the family.

Her last request was not to be taken to an undertaker, and she wanted just a simple funeral, and requested a home made coffin. This request was carried out. Harlan Caudill and John Campbell purchased poplar from Ritter Lumber Company and cut every piece to an exact fit. Her shroud was made by friends and she was laid to rest in the Dixon Cemetery on Elk Creek.

DAVID BACK

I feel it my duty to pay homage and honor to David Back in writing a short sketch of his noble life to refresh the memories of those who knew him and that others who never knew him might know the life he lived.

"The righteous perish and no man regardeth the memory of them and soon forgotten."

He was born April 21, 1837 and died January 21, 1925. In 1860 he was married to Rachel Caudill, daughter of the late Stephen and Betsy (Fields) Caudill. To this union was born two sons, Stephen M. and Henry B. both living and four daughters, Bettie, Susana, Sarah and Martha. His wife died in 1873 at about the age of 31 years. The two first named daughters preceded him in death several years. Martha my wife, and Sarah Adams are still living. Some three years after the death of his first wife he was married to Nancy Dixon, daughter of the late Elder James Dickson who passed away a few years after his death. To this latter union was born seven children; four boys and three girls, all living except Joe, who died Feb. 21, 1935. He and his first wife joined the Indian Bottom Church of Regular Baptist in early life. They were ordained deacon and deaconess of that church.

Uncle Dave as he was affectionately called, lived a devoted christian life, setting example worthy to be followed by everyone, I knew him from childhood and loved him as a father, I never heard anyone say aught against him. But his smiling pleasant face will never be forgotten by us who knew him. We feel sure his spirit is resting under the alter of God, awaiting the redemption of the body.

Written by W.C. Dixon

The above was copied from the Minutes of the Forty-third Annual Session of the Indian Bottom Association in the year 1938.
